“ I've known Al for forty some odd years. He has always been a good friend and is the Godfather to my son, Nate. We have had some great times and he was there for my graduation from Cal Poly, the births of my two children and in good times and bad. I'll never forget the wonderful family times at Bass Lake, the poker games, the Super Bowls, BBQs and Christmas parties. You will always have a warm place in my heart, Al, and I send my heartfelt condolences and sympathies to Rose, Rosemarie and Fred. He was a great guy and I will never forget him . . .
