

April Louise Stewart

January 16, 1967 - February 18, 2017

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

DS

“ I knew April since 1985. Had not seen her in many years but we did connect by phone back in 2016-17. She went silent again and I was sad that we did not get to see each other and now I find out why we lost contact. I am saddened today to hear this news. I know she was going through a rough time.. I think she had a tough life . Wish I knew what happened so I can have closure. I will remember the good times.

Rest April

---

DS - February 06, 2019 at 12:17 AM

DS

I was able to get information about April's demise from the SLO Sherriff and the Mortuary. They just were not able to tell me what happened to her remains as I am not a family member. I would like to pay my last respects but I have hit a dead end and now just must accept or believe that she was laid to rest properly. It does bother me though that I was not able to find out.

Rest in Peace April.. Will see you again on the other side.

---

Darryl S - June 02, 2021 at 04:34 PM

DS

“ April had been a "client" of mine, and, in later years, a friend. And I grieve her passing even though it could have been foretold. Still, like everyone who knew and cared for her, I hoped for a better end. I pray that where ever her spirit is now she is at peace. Her beautiful laugh and infectious smile will be missed.

Jackson Browne's tune "A Song for Adam" comes to mind. With poetic license...

*"Though April was a friend of mine
I did not know her well.
She was alone into her distance,
She was deep into her well.
I could guess what she was laughing at
But I couldn't really tell.
Now the story's told that April jumped
But I've been thinking that she fell.*

*I sit before my only candle.
But it's so little light to find my way.
Now this story unfolds before my candle,
Which is shorter every hour
As it reaches for the day.
But I feel just like a candle in the way.
I guess I'll get there,
But I wouldn't say, for sure."*

---

David Shearer - March 13, 2017 at 10:28 PM