“ I have many fond memories of Ardythe and her little sister (Nancy) too. Ardythe had the voice of angel and she sang at my wedding in 1950. She also was quite the ballerina in her younger days. We attended Old Mission School at the same time, and worked at the Fremont theater at the same time also. Later in life, we sat in the same row at church for many years. My prayer is that she did not have to suffer too much or too long. My deepest sympathy to her loving family. each and every one of them. No more suffering. Rest in peace dear one. With love, Judy Quartilho Preuss
