“ Coralyn was a powerful force in the lives of all she came into contact with. Her compassion, integrity, and spirit were magical. She was a warrior and champion who lead by example. I was fortunate enough to call her a friend. Some of my brightest moments and darkest hours were spent with her as we wrestled the many mysteries of life and its timing. I always walked away from an interaction with her feeling blessed and grateful that she was a part of my journey. She was a gift to all of us. Thank you, Coralyn for the magic, joy, and love.

“ I have many wonderful memories of Coralyn from our many years of working together, and I learned so much from her about really living life to it's fullest.

In all the years she was fighting health issues, she never complained. She had an incredibly courageous outlook, and an indomitable spirit. She proved some of her Dr's expectations wrong, because they underestimated how much she loved her family, and loved life. I remember her surgeon told her that he never did more than 5 surgeries on any of his patients; but over the years, she convinced him to do otherwise.

Coralyn impressed me by repeatedly returning to work as soon as possible after each series of treatments, showing an incredible inner strength.

And I recall how she impressed me by taking family trips between treatments, proving that she was determined to continue to live life to the fullest, and not allow her illness to control her life.

I am so grateful for having known Coralyn, and will miss her so much.

My deepest sympathy to all her family,

Molly Peters.

“ Coralyn was always one of the strongest, most courageous friends I've ever known...before and through all the seasons of her physical battles. She was always an encourager to my wife as they both fought back against cancer. Her smile & fun hats she wore to work married up with her thriving-regardless attitude that inspired us all. It was an honor to work with her all the years she was at SLO Co Mental Health Youth Services. Countless memories will go with us all into the years ahead--reminding to brighten someone else's life in spite of what you might be going through at the time. Thank you Coralyn for blessings us with your character. Thank you Brett family for sharing her with us. Our hearts and prayers go reach out to you in love. Dave & Jan Mayfield
