

Dolores Irene Boles

February 15, 1930 - May 15, 2018

Dolores I. Boles, age 88, of San Luis Obispo, California died Tuesday May 15, 2018 at Mission View Nursing Home. Mrs. Boles was a long-term resident of New Bloomington, Ohio. She was born in Marion, Ohio on February 15, 1930 to the late William and Mary Willis. She was married to the late Harley Boles on November 11, 1950. They celebrated over 60 years of marriage.

Surviving her are son; Gary R. (Megan) Boles of Henderson, Nevada and daughter; Nancy L. (John) Scarry of San Luis Obispo, California. Also surviving her are grandchildren: Audrey and William Beard and Beth Grapperhaus, great grandsons; Jordan and Jackson Grapperhaus. She was preceded in death by daughter; Kathy A. (Scott) Beard, sisters; Betty Jean Workman and Virginia Ann Baker, brothers; Wayne Willis and Darrell Willis, and grandson Ricky Boles.

Mrs. Boles worked mainly in the home raising and supporting her family. However, she did work at Elgin High School and the local telephone company. She was a devoted Christian and a member of New Bloomington Methodist church. She was an active reader and enjoyed Bible study.

She will be returned to LaRue Cemetery to be united with husband Harley. There will not be formal services.

Those who wish may make contributions to the charity of the donor's choice.