

Donald Anthony Martines

September 30, 1959 - May 21, 2020

Donald was born on Sept. 30, 1959 at French Hospital in San Luis Obispo, California to Donald Martines and Peninnah (Fallas) Martines. He went home to Morro Bay, Ca., where his parents lived for about 2 years. The next home was Alta Loma, California. From there the family moved to New Cuyama, California. Then in 1969 they moved to Atascadero, California.

He attended grammar school at St. Rose in Paso Robles. His high school years were spent at Atascadero High School where he met Roxanna Dillard. They married their senior year. They had three sons, Donnie, Jesse and Christopher. He was in the National Guard for five years. He was mostly stationed at Camp Roberts and Hunter Leggit in California.

Donald spent most of his adult life traveling between California and Nevada working for his father in the dry flower business. He enjoyed fishing with his dad.

Donald is survived by his three sons, five grand children, his mother and seven siblings and many nieces and nephews.
