

Ellard Lowell Porte

November 6, 1921 - May 24, 2018

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

MJ

“ Fetch was my great uncle , Oh I meant GREAT uncle taught me how to fish and hunt and I pride myself today to be pretty darn good at both never will forget the times at the cabin on top of the mountain the time I woke up sleeping with a pack rat boy that was a laugh and never forget the trucker fetch was when I was young I would join him once to Oregon border for flooding relieve we took Bailey bridge to folks that were trapped. How's that! Lots you don't know about this GREAT man my Uncle. Sincerely Michael Johnson

---

michael johnson - May 29, 2018 at 11:49 AM

 Jean Dorrrough

“ Mr. Porte was my neighbor for all my growing up years. I remember his beautiful dogs he raised and how one mockingbird used to drive him nuts when it started screeching at three o'clock in the morning!

---

Jean Dorrrough - May 27, 2018 at 03:01 PM