

Frank Lloyd Wood

March 23, 1932 - May 15, 2018

Frank Lloyd Wood, of Cayucos, CA died in his home on May 15, 2018 following a brief illness. He was 86.

Frank was born March 23, 1932 in San Francisco, CA to Lloyd and Alice Wood, the third of four children. He graduated from San Francisco Polytechnic High School. In 1952, during the Korean War, he served in the US Army at Ft. Ord until his honorable discharge in 1954.

After a brief stint in Pennsylvania, serving as a railroad break man, Frank returned to San Francisco and began his printing career at the San Francisco Examiner and then the Wall Street Journal. He moved to Palo Alto in 1968 where he continued work at the WSJ, achieving the position of Foreman, until his retirement in 1992.

Frank and his wife Pat enjoyed a wonderful retirement in Cayucos for the last 22 years. He was an active member of Zion Lutheran Church, serving as Finance Manager, Usher and led the Harvest Bag food bank for several years. He enjoyed the “breakfast club” with friends, their card group and spending time with his Shih Tzus.

Over the years, Frank enjoyed many pastimes, including travel - especially cruises - fishing, motorcycle riding, and sailing. He especially enjoyed the times he spent on his boat with his love, Patricia and their corgi, Megan. He also enjoyed his annual trips to Maui for the last 30 years, and treasured spending holidays and birthdays with family and friends.

Frank is survived by his wife of nearly 33 years, Patricia, daughter Kerry, sister Susan (Jon) Sweeney, step-daughter Kathy (Stan), step-son Doug (Erika), step-daughter Jackie, and six grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents Lloyd and Alice, his sisters Beverly and Phyllis and his son Kevin.

Frank's kindness, generosity and omnipresent smile will be greatly missed by all who knew him.

A memorial service honoring Frank's life will be held at Zion Lutheran Church, San Luis Obispo, on June 1, 2018 at 11:00 AM. In lieu of flowers, donations to Hospice or Zion Lutheran Church can be made.

“ Frank & I worked for the same company for many years but he worked on the west coast while I worked on the east coast but we did meet a few times while our company was upgrading to new technology back in the 90s. As I remember Frank always had a smile on his face for everyone and he was a real gentleman as well. God bless you Frank and my prayers and condolences to his wife and family.
