“Terribly saddened to read of Gerry's passing. Condolences to Gerry's wife, sons, family and friends. He was a true gentleman and friend to those who were lucky enough to have known him. Remembered as a true waterman, sport lover, and at one time even tried his hand at ballroom dancing. A smile that would light up the room. At one time happiest with his feet in the sand and basketball in his hands. His spirit must be in the stars now, for they seem to shine a bit brighter in the early morning hours.

“ I have many memories of Gerry, since I met him in 1979. His kindness is what I remember most. When I divorced he was the only one of my husband's friends to come and see me , and assure me that I would always be his friend. He continued to visit me over the years, invite me to his home, and visited me in Utah on two occasions. He took me to my first and only professional basketball game, Utah Jazz vs LA Lakers. We had a blast. I remember his old beat up beach car that he was so proud of, especially after he had it repainted. Gerry was a groomsman in my wedding to his good friend, Rob. The last time I saw Gerry we had a wonderful talk reminiscing about our mutual friends. I will always cherish us standing together gazing out at the ocean from the cliffs of Montana De Oro. Gerry, you will forever be missed. RIP my friend. Prayers of comfort to your wife, Susan, and your sons, Gregg and Geoff. HEIDI ANTICEVICH
