“ Dr. Jim Andre was my finance professor when I attended Loyola Marymount University in 2001-2004. He was an amazing person with a tremendous passion for teaching his students. I'm saddened to learn of his passing, but grateful for being one of his students.

“ Jim had a generous heart. Long ago when my husband and I were first married and had little money for vacations, Jim included us in weekends at Lake Nacimiento. We lost touch over the years, but I kept hearing about caring things he did. A gift to so many.

“ Jim was a dear friend at Santa Clara University with so many memories and trips to San Luis Obispo with all his high school friends from Mission High. Sadly, we lost touch over the years except for our class reunions where we also met Paul the Wonderful and enjoyed chatting with the two of them very much. Such sad news. Condolences to all who loved this fine man.

“ I met Jim during the late 70's in Houston. We maintained our friendship all through the years. He was the most “full of life” person I've ever met. I will always remember him and miss him.
