

Jennifer Lynn Moore

September 24, 1982 - June 15, 2026

Jennifer Lynn Moore, 43, of Atascadero, California, passed away peacefully on June 15, 2026, surrounded by the love of her family and friends.

Jennifer was a devoted wife, mother, sister, aunt, and friend whose warmth and kindness touched everyone who knew her. She was known for her loving heart, gentle spirit, and steady wisdom. Jennifer was often the voice of reason, offering comfort, guidance, and strength to those around her. Her beauty radiated not only from her smile but from the compassion and grace with which she lived her life.

For over 20 years, Jennifer worked as an office manager, dedicating herself to her career before choosing to spend more time enjoying the things she loved most. She found joy in cross-stitching, hiking, reading, music, and relaxing beach days with family and friends. A devoted Bon Jovi fan, Jennifer could often be found with a favorite song playing in the background. She treasured traveling with her husband to Carmel-by-the-Sea and enjoyed special trips to Santa Barbara with her sister, creating memories that will be cherished forever. One of her greatest joys was watching her son, nephews, and nieces grow, celebrating their milestones and cherishing every moment she shared with them.

Jennifer faced life's challenges with remarkable courage, determination, and grace. Her strength inspired those around her, and her unwavering faith in God carried her through difficult times. She fought hard, never losing the kindness, dignity, and love that defined her character.

Jennifer is survived by her beloved husband, Lance Moore; her son, Lance Moore Jr.; her sister, Holly Shaw; her nephews, Hunter and Orion Tweedy; the Shope family; and many aunts, uncles, cousins, and dear friends who were deeply loved by Jennifer and who will forever hold her memory close to their hearts.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Lori Shaw; her grandmothers, Shirley and Joanna; and her nephew, Skyler Silvano Minella.

Though Jennifer's time with us was far too short, the love she shared and the lives she touched will remain forever. She leaves behind a legacy of faith, strength, compassion, and unconditional love. Her family finds comfort in knowing that she is at peace and in the presence of the Lord she faithfully trusted throughout her life.

A graveside service will be held on Friday, June 26, 2026, at 2:00 p.m. at Los Osos Valley Memorial Park. A celebration of life will follow at 5:00 p.m. at the Atascadero Lake Park Pavilion outdoor Gazebo.

Jennifer will be deeply missed and lovingly remembered always.
