

John Felice Michael Cook

March 5, 1974 - February 18, 2025

John Felice Michael Cook was born on March 5, 1974 in San Luis Obispo, California. He passed away at home on February 18, 2025, with his family nearby. He is survived by his wife Tawny, their two children, Pearl and Tucker, mother Vivian, stepfather Dennis, siblings Michele, Brian and JC, many aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and cousins.

John lived on the central coast his entire life making him a true local boy. He was proud of his Italian roots and family meant everything to him. He was previous owner of the iconic High Street Deli before becoming the owner of Roza's Fencing where he continued his Uncle's legacy of cattle fencing until his passing.

John loved surfing, skateboarding, listening to music, camping, living the ranch life and spending time with his family and friends. He loved to dance at home with his wife to their favorite songs.

He was the life of the party and at times had his own language. If you knew John you knew his iconic phrases (john-isms).

John was one of a kind, lived a simple life and will always be remembered by his infectious laughter, boundless kindness and willingness to lend a helping hand.

We are eternally grateful for the mark John Cook left on this world.

A celebration of life will be held at Avila Beach Golf Resort on Saturday April 12 at 12 p.m.
