“ He was and is an irreplaceable, unassuming, and loyal buddy. We navigated the "enchanted years" together and he yet lives in many of my impressions of life's thoughts and viewpoints. People were drawn to John's genuine personality and he would always draw near to the needs of anyone who was lucky enough, as I was, to have him for a friend. He was cared for and loved in life by his wonderful mother Madeline, and his most special sister Eileen who has touched my life with time spent sharing just a few of the memories, photos, and sentiments about John's life window. So pull up "Do It Again" by the Beach Boys, hum it, clap, try to follow the lyrics but especially see our John's smile, laugh, and high five for the happy times we had.
