Johnnie P. Farmer

4/17/1927 – 10/10/2023

Johnnie P. Farmer passed from this life to join his wife, Evelyn, on October 10, 2023. He was born in Tucson, Arizona on April 17, 1927 to Wilhelm (William) and Bernadette Farmer. Johnnie was raised in Tucson along with his older brothers William and Charles, later moving to Payson, Arizona where he met the love of his life, Evelyn Thompson. They were married three weeks later, on October 29, 1949, and remained so for almost 69-years until her passing.

Johnnie was a wonderful Father, Grandfather, and Great-Grandfather, an experienced horseman and farmer, and avid music collector. He settled in San Luis Obispo, California in 1960 with his wife and three children, serving in the California Department of Forestry (CAL FIRE today), retiring in 1979.

An active member in his church, Johnnie served as Deacon of Johnson Avenue Church of Christ, in San Luis Obispo. He was a devoted family man, supportive neighbor, friend to the community, and will be missed greatly.

Johnnie leaves behind his two daughters: Jo Ann De Brum and Victoria Barker (Dennis), as well as three grandchildren: Dustin De Brum (Vanessa), Marc De Brum (Alyssa), and Stormi De Silva, along with four great-grandchildren: Emma, Miles, Johnnie, and Ty De Brum.

He is preceded in death by his loving wife Evelyn Famer, his beloved son, Johnnie William Farmer, his parents William and Bernadette Farmer, and brothers William R. Farmer and Charles H. Farmer.

A memorial service will be held 2pm on November 2, 2023, at Reis Family Mortuary, 991 Nipomo Street, San Luis Obispo, CA.
