“ Karen sister of my heart since we met in 1956. I love you and what will remain when this world passes away is love. See you again in that love, Kathy “Karen was our family babysitter and morphed into a close family friend over the years.

She was a welcome relief from all the terrible sitter's we had over the year's and gave us freedom the other's hadn't. Because she was fairly close to our age I think she understood us more than probably our parents did at the time. She was present during that "coming of age" period for me, and because of this left an indelible mark on the memories I have from that period of time.

I felt so sad when I heard she had died. I will miss her. She had a wicked sense of humor. She loved to laugh and I can still hear what her chuckle sounded like. She had a love of music, the depth and breadth of her knowledge of different groups and artists was incredible. So warm and engaging, I remembering shopping with her in the Bay Area, she would walk into every store and engage the shopkeeper in a conversation. Huge lover of books, she was incredibly smart. She could have an intelligent conversation on a whole host of topics, whether it was politics or history, she never ceased to amaze me.

As a person she was tolerant and nonjudgmental. She was also sensitive, perceptive and caring. There were so many things to love about Karen.

Having moved out of the area I did not see her often the last few years. She was present at my wedding several years ago, I feel glad she was there to share that day with me. I feel lucky to have had the opportunity to know her. I have wonderful memories of the times we shared.

Karen, I will miss you but I won't forget.....

“ Even though, due to illnesses and tragedies, Karen's and my lives have taken different paths lately, it doesn't erase the fact that for the majority of our lives (52 years, since age 8), Karen and I were there by each other's sides; through all the good times and the challenging times. Karen, you used to say we were "sisters from different mothers". That was so true! All the late, long phone calls, the road trips, adventures, the laughter and the tears. I don't know how I would have made it without your wisdom, support, and spirituality. I couldn't ask for a better lifetime friend. Times have been unusually tough for both of us the last few years but you will always be my "nother sister"; here and in heaven. I hope you have found my daughter and have her close with you. "Sail on silver girl, sail on by. Your time has come to fly". I miss you and love you. You have been an integral part of the vast majority of my life. I believe a time will come when the complexities of this life fade away and we will share a new dimension. With love, dear sister.

“ I am sad to hear Karen passed. I live far away, but view her as a close friend. She has a sweet disposition and is intelligent, bright, caring, compassionate, friendly, spiritual. I will miss her always. I am glad I had the chance to know her.
