She was the youngest girl of a family of 8 boys and 6 girls. They lived in Bakersfield until 1926 then moved to the Carizzo Plains while her father Jesus was having a house built in Santa Margarita. She went to all the dances at the armory at Camp San Luis and also in Pismo Beach where all the big name bands played. She also went to the dances at Atascadero Lake where she met her future husband, Ted Bradbeer. They made beautiful music together and loved to jitter bug and decided to get married. When Teddy asked Kay's mom for her hand, she said under only one condition if he would become a Catholic, so he did. In 1942 he went into the Navy and asked Kay to wait for him. They were married June 27, 1943 in Holy Angels Catholic Church in Santa Margarita. His best man was a fella named Bert Stieger. They had two children Darleen and Ed. When Ted came back from the service he worked for the railroad for 17 years. He then worked as a cook at CMC. Meanwhile they had a candy shop downtown San Luis Obispo on Marsh. They were married for over 25 years. They traveled throughout the world in those years.

Aunt Kay's Tea Party 12/15/19

Catie Garcia - December 27, 2019 at 05:37 PM

SG

What an honor to see Aunt Kay at her “Tea Party” recently in December. When I think of Christmas at the Hall in SLO, the first person I see is lively, adorable, busy Aunt Kay smiling and coordinating the party. She was the ♥ heart of the gatherings and thrived surrounded by all those who loved her dearly and we will miss her. Blessings to Aunt Kay and her family.
