

Leatrice "Lea" Mae Galati

December 10, 1925 - January 28, 2016

Leatrice "Lea" M. Galati of San Luis Obispo, CA passed away in her home surrounded by her family. Daughter of Atwood and Monica (Harty) Thompson, she was born in Dubuque, Iowa. She spent her childhood in Shullsburg, Wisconsin and graduated from Senn High School in Chicago, Illinois in 1943. She worked as a secretary and met Raymond Galati, who was stationed at the Great Lakes Naval Station outside of Chicago. They were married in Alhambra, California in 1948. They had four children, Lynn Carol (Galati) Vestal, Vincent Galati, Nancy Ann Galati and Steven Galati.

After residing in West Covina, California for 21 years, in 1970 Lea and Ray moved to San Luis Obispo where they enjoyed the "SLO" life, quite a change from the LA area. After 10 more years as a secretary in the Social Services Dept., Lea retired to spend more time with her family. She was blessed with 7 grandchildren, 8 great grandchildren and 2 great, great grandchildren.
