“ Grandma, though we were separated by east coast to west coast. I always felt close when we spoke over the phone. Wether we were exchanging laughs or having a serious conversation about my future plans, every topic meant the world to you. We're all going to miss you. Love you grandma.

Thinking of you and your sweet mother, Liz. She was very pretty. Hold tight to your happy memories of her. She was a brave and strong woman. Much love, Sherrie

“ Mom,
I will miss calling you every day and laughing about the most silly things. In my heart I will hold you very close and knowing how much we loved each other. Thank you for all you did for me and being a friend. I love you so much and I will miss you.
