“ I can never express in words what my grandma meant to all of us. She was so incredibly loving and beyond generous. She always said, I don't have much, but what I have I share with you. You could never come over and not be greeted with the biggest and most sincere hug along with a hearty meal she would cook just for you. To grandma and grandpa, our family was everything! She and grandpa were our foundation. They were the building blocks for all of us and as we've all expanded our families, we are rooted in love from both of them and we pass that same love onto our families. In that, they will never die, they live on in all of us. I miss her and will continue to miss her, but I am comforted in knowing she is back with grandpa and she is restored. My grandma's faith was as strong as she was, never bending and never wavering. Vaya con Díos, Grandma ❤️

“ I had the very special privilege of meeting and knowing dear Maria in the later years of her life. Her lovely daughter Mary became a very special friend of mine along with her sons, son-in-law, and her grandchildren. Maria was a lovely woman and a very devoted wife, mother and grandmother. The unending love and support that she gave to her family throughout the years will always be a treasured gift. Her strong family values and deep faith are a part of her very special legacy, and her kindness and love for life will never be forgotten. My life has been richly blessed for having known Maria.

“ I have a lifetime of Beautiful Memories that would take a few volumes to fill of my Beautiful and Wonderful Mama. She was so loving and Fun, we (my brothers , Dad, and I) were the most important people in her life. She showed her Love for us EVERYDAY with her hugs, kisses, caring words , and even with the Mom LOOK. Our Family was her life. And God Almighty her strength and faithful companion everyday. Her Grandchildren as they came along were one of her greatest Joys, she filled their lives with Love. She was the epitome of Grandmas. She has touched Many other lives In hers, we hear stories of how she helped and cared for so many people, especially many elderly whom needed assistance in their lives. She had a heart of Gold. Our hearts are broken and the tears flow, but the Love she had and Gave us still lives. Her Gift to her family and those who's lives she touched was LOVE. Her Legacy.
