“ Its hard for me to believe Matt has died and is now reunited with his mother Lynne, Uncles, Aunts Grandparents and friends that went before him. I will always remember his big heart and gregarious smile. There really are no words to comfort me as I know he is free of pain and is now at Peace. He suffered so much during his life with hip pain and non malignant tumors in his head. He was one tough Marine. I can't tell u how much I miss him as we had a very special bond Father-Son and he always had my back and I know he knew how much I loved him. He was so happy the past two months of his life as he found happiness in Jenna and her daughter Rosie. Made me elated, God had a plan and Matt fulfilled it and died happy. I will never forget you Matt as I have a whole in my heart.

RIP Son

I love you Dad

“ I was fortunate to see Matthew last year on Easter when I stopped to drop off a photo album of old pictures from his mom. He was so happy about it and I loved meeting his dog. We will all meet again and know that Matthew is at peace. Natalie Read (McTucker)
