“ Mike and my husband, Guy, rode motorcycles together, and that is how I got to know him. He was a kind man, and I will never forget his beautiful smile. He had a zest for life that was contagious, and he was an inspiration to many. I pray that God will bring comfort and peace to his family, and to the many people that knew him and loved him. He told my husband that he would see him on the other side, and that they would have some great rides....I believe that!! You will be missed Mike.

“ Mike was one of the nicest people that I have ever had the experience to know. Kind, a great smile, a great laugh, and looked you in the eyes. I was devastated when I learned of his passing. My condolences go out to his family. I was honored to have known Mike and I considered him a friend as anyone else who knew him would. Words cannot express my sorrow at this great loss of a human being. I will always cherish good memories of Mike, but will also miss his smile and and genuine sincerity, and most of all his hand shake when greeting and departing. He was a a great man. He will be greatly missed.

“ The last time I talked with Mike, about a week before his death, he was absolutely inspirational. His bright blue eyes were wide open as he faced death with all the courage he faced life. He could not have been at more peace with the wonderful life he lived. The love he shared with us all should be a lesson as to how we should all share our love with friends and family.
