“ I am truly saddened to hear of Nic's passing. I worked at DCPD for a long time and it seemed like he was always there as a permanent part of the organization. I offer my condolences to his family and am sure he will be missed. Life seems to go on no matter what but things like this are a bump in the road sometimes. I always enjoyed working with Nic. I dont think I ever heard him say anything in anger or being disrespectful to anyone. He was always helpful when I needed something. I will miss his presence as will we all.

“ I worked closely with Nic for for a number of years. He was a very conscientious and dedicated employee. He was quick to recognize the efforts of his staff and he was always willing to take on the hard work that was required to improve the organization. Nic was a co-worker but more importantly, I will always think of him as a friend.

“ I worked with Nic for almost thirty years at Diablo Canyon and always found him to be kind, smart, thoughtful, and reliable. It's hard to belief he's left us and we are the worse for it. I'll really miss him.

What a great person Nic was. He was a humble, quiet, and very kind hearted man. He was also a hard worker. When I think of Nic, I am reminded of the word "kindness". Nic was very kind. Nic thought on others and made great sacrifices so others could be blessed. You never know how one act of kindness can manifest, and change a life. The children he helped will never forget what Nic did for them. He may no longer be here to see how he impacted those children's life, or my life; however his legacy lives on.

When I would see Nic around the plant, he would say, "Thank you for coming in today." My response back to him was, "No thank you for coming in". We would talk, smile at each other and go our seperate ways. I will miss seeing Nic's sweet demeanor around the plant. Nic was a teacher, and we can all learn from Nic's life and model "Kindness". My prayers are with your family. Mary Reneau
