“ I was 16 when I met patty and Gary, they were to become my sister and brother in law. Patty was a huge part in my life when married to Gary's brother Bill. We had baby jamie and Patty was a rock for me along with Gary. She was always there to lend a hand and had a plethora of information for a young mom. I have always loved her and glad I saw her in 2023. I will miss her sweet face and always cherish the help she gave a new young mom. I love you patty and my heart breaks for your passing. Hugs to you sister in law. Hugs to Lori, Lisa, Jimmy and Timmy.

“ Ronnie and I send our heartfelt sympathy to you and your whole family. So many memories from the past with Patty and Gary. Both of your parents meant so much to us. Sadly, time passes and you do not share time with those who meant so much to you. Please know we care and send you our love
