“ If I remember correctly, the last we spoke was around 2009 or 2010, you told me, Lydia, you were the only one that treated me with respect and cared about me, You said you had to leave Texas for California, to venue on your own. My brother, I eant you to k ow I search for you for years, you had no digital footsteps, making it hard to find you until your death. Know that I always thought of you. Love your sister Lydia Horn Natrass
