

Pauline Jane Souza

January 12, 1930 - September 20, 2016

Pauline “Polly” Souza, 86, of San Luis Obispo, died Tuesday evening, September 20, 2016, at Full Circle Residence Assisted Living in Arroyo Grande. She was born on January 12, 1930, in Torrance, California, to John “Bud” and Roma Robinson. She attended nursing school in Redlands, CA. There, she met Mel Souza from Hilo, Hawaii, through a mutual friend. They married on September 3, 1955. He preceded her in death on December 16, 1993.

She is survived by her daughter Valerie and son-in-law Phil Shore, granddaughter Becky Wiles, great grandson Caleb, great granddaughter Bethany and grandson Doug Shore of Arroyo Grande. She is also survived by her daughter Jill Souza and granddaughter Rachel Malametz, both of San Luis Obispo, grandson Jacob, granddaughter Anna and grandson Ely Malametz all near Seattle, WA. She was an only child.

Polly was a 60 year resident of San Luis Obispo and worked as a registered nurse for Dr. Harry Fryer, pediatrician, in the ‘60’s. She loved to read, garden and do crossword puzzles. She also volunteered for Senior Peer Counseling and the Morro Bay Natural History Museum.

As a widow, she traveled extensively throughout Europe, Japan, Russia and Australia. Her return trip from New Zealand was delayed on 9/11/2001.

Funeral services will be held on Wednesday, September 28, 2016, at 10:00 a.m. at St. Stephens Episcopal Church. A graveside service will follow immediately afterwards at Los Osos Valley Memorial Park.

Donations can be made to Hospice of SLO, 1304 Pacific St, San Luis Obispo, CA 93401.
